THREE NEVADA CONTRACTORS DISCIPLINED BY CONTRACTORS BOARD

(Reno, NV) – At its meetings on May 7, 2008, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving three contractors.

Atlas Tile & Stone., license numbers 58478 and 59360 (Install Terazzo & Marble and Tiling), based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for misrepresentation of a material fact. The licensee was fined $1,000 and ordered to pay investigative costs. The licenses were revoked.

Warner Brothers Construction, license number 56842 (Residential & Small Commercial), based out of Sedona, AZ, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship; failure to comply with the Board's notice to correct; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; failure to obtain the necessary building permits; contracting without a license; failure to keep in force a bond or cash deposit; and failure to establish financial responsibility. The licensee was fined $14,000 and ordered to pay investigative costs and make full restitution to all damaged parties and reimburse the Board for any monies paid out of the Residential Recovery Fund. The license was revoked.

Summary Suspension

The Nevada State Contractors Board took proactive action on May 7, 2008, by summarily suspending the following license, after multiple complaints were received for money owning, substandard workmanship and industry regulation violations:

Grass Valley Industries, dba Kerr Concrete, license numbers 43235A, 43235B and 43235C (Concrete, Steel Reinforcing & Erection and Using Sheet Metal), based out of Reno, NV.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to promoting the public confidence and trust in the competency and integrity of licensed contractors and to protecting the health, safety and welfare of the public.

*The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
