Nevada State Contractors Board

2011-12 Executive Officer's Report Strategic Plan Quarterly Report October 1 – December 31 To: NSCB Members

From: Margi Grein, Executive Officer

Subject: FY 2011-12 Executive Officer's Report and

Strategic Plan Quarterly Report

The beginning of Quarter 2 for FY 2011-12 kicked off with NSCB hosting the first ever National Association of State Contractors Licensing Agencies (NASCLA) Resources Committee meeting. Exceeding the deadline we set out for ourselves, the members of the Resources Committee fully developed the framework for two national model programs, which are currently being added to NASCLA's website for all states to utilize. The programs center on strategies and tools to prevent elder abuse while also providing a structure for states to follow when responding to disasters in their respective areas. This collaborative partnering effort further demonstrates our leadership and our ability to be forward thinking as a Board.

Another significant event to impact a region of our state was the Caughlin Fire in Reno. This whirlwind fire destroyed 32 homes and burned over 2,000 acres of land. Already having the NASCLA Disaster Response Plan afforded us the opportunity to perform the necessary response and outreach measures expeditiously. Within 48 hours, staff had coordinated efforts with local law enforcement, fire department personnel, building officials, and others assisting with the response. From the office, staff partnered with the Governor's Office in sending out a press release warning of unlicensed activity, placed warning signs throughout the area, distributed collateral materials, and made information prominently available on the homepage of the website. Following the disaster, Board staff in Reno was interviewed to discuss our efforts, provide visuals of the signs placed in the community, and offer homeowners information on contracting dos and don'ts. Our efforts have been acknowledged by the industry and homeowners in a variety of settings for our quick response and constant visibility in the affected areas. To date, no unlicensed contractors have been identified in the areas, which is a testament to our ongoing efforts.

Other notable events this quarter include the completion of a year-long investigation into Blue Lagoon Pools, in which 18 homeowners were awarded more than $183,000 collectively from the Residential Recovery Fund, the addition of two new unlicensed contractors to our Most Wanted list, and the award of $27,900 in construction education grants to four entities throughout the state.

Our agenda this quarter continued to be ambitious, but our commitment to maintain open communication with staff and industry partners, focus on strategic planning initiatives, and embrace new ideas helped us achieve our goals. Staff was provided with a variety of trainings to enhance customer service and jobrelated skills, and regular meetings among management and staff continue to be held to ensure everyone stays informed of challenges and opportunities facing the Board.

As always, we will maintain an ongoing focus to improve data collection efforts as they relate to the quality of our performance and the ability to meet each of our customers' needs. There is still much work ahead of us and we are eager to come before you in the near future to report on our successes.

Sincerely,

MARGI GREIN

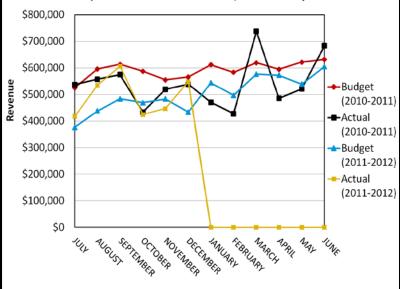

NSCB. Executive Officer

- Despite the challenges of the economy and the trends being experienced, the Board is still in positive financial standings and has been able to keep expenses lower than the revenue being generated.

CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE

• The majority of customers are satisfied with the interactions with the Board. However, continued improvement is always needed, especially given the low sampling rate of our customer service surveys.

LOOKING FORWARD

QUARTER ONE REFLECTIONS

While there were many significant events in the 2nd Quarter that required extensive work and collaboration, management and staff also devoted much of their time to improving internal processes and procedures. We acknowledge that improvements to customer service, quality of our work product, and the use of time can always be enhanced. In addition to the trainings offered to staff, each department evaluated their internal operations and solicited input from staff on opportunities for streamlined operations. As a result, call paths were adjusted, forms were amended, and stagnant cases were evaluated and dismissed in enforcement. The quality of our performance continues to be an area that is difficult to accurately judge; but with an increased focus on customer service surveys and innovative strategies to obtain feedback from those staff interact with on a daily basis, we will begin to inch closer to better identifying areas where enhancements can be made.

The dialogue between Board management and staff paired with the clear expectations outlined in our strategic plan have proven to make us more unified as a whole, which is then reflective in our external partnerships. In the last two quarters alone, the industry perception of the Board is beginning to change simply because of our proactive efforts to engage community partners on industry issues. By extending our assistance and creating a setting where we can have a comprehensive exchange of ideas, the Board is demonstrating its leadership in the industry and fulfilling its vision of becoming a model regulatory agency.

QUARTER TWO EXPECTATIONS

The 3rd Quarter will continue to place emphasis on improved performance measures. Management will be responsible for continuing to evaluate the various data being collected in order to identify opportunities for new programs or improved services. Outreach and engagement to rural areas will be another focus of improved efforts and collaboration for Board staff. Partnering will always be at the forefront, especially with regard to the development and implementation of new programs, such as the senior seminar concept. We hope to outline a plan for better recognizing the contributions made by contractors throughout the industry, as well as demonstrating our appreciation to staff through a formalized Employee Recognition Program. As time progresses, so will our successes and achievement of our goals. In the latter half of the fiscal year, we will find ourselves closer to closing the chapter on this year's strategic plan and paving the way for new opportunities and obstacles to overcome.
