Nov. 14-18 Proclaimed as Nevada Licensed Contractors Week by Governor Sandoval

HENDERSON, Nev. –In partnership with the Nevada State Contractors Board (NSCB), Governor Brian Sandoval signed a proclamation declaring the week of November 14-18, 2011 as Nevada Licensed Contractors Week.

“The contributions made by licensed contractors to the State of Nevada in both residential and commercial markets over the years are commendable,” expressed Margi A. Grein, executive officer of NSCB. “It is important for homeowners to understand the value of hiring a licensed contractor, and for licensed contractors to be recognized for their diligence in complying with state laws and regulations.”

The designated week will recognize the contributions made by licensed contractors throughout the state as well as raise awareness to homeowners about the benefits, protections, and best practices of hiring licensed contractors. As part of Nevada Licensed Contractors Week, the Board will formally recognize the proclamation at its upcoming Board meeting on Nov. 17.
