CONTRACTORS BOARD TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST TWO CONTRACTORS IN NORTHERN NEVADA

(Reno, NV) - At its meeting on Feb. 22, 2006, the Nevada State Contractors Board adjudicated cases involving two contractors.

Northridge Construction, license numbers 50381, 58215, 59700 (General Engineering, General Building and C-5 Concrete Contracting) based out of Reno, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for: failure to comply with a written request from the Board; failing to include a license number and monetary license limit on a contract or proposal; acting in the capacity of a contractor beyond the scope of the license; failure to provide name, license number, business address and telephone numbers of all subcontractors contracted on the project; failure to include required Residential Recovery Fund information on a contract or proposal; and failure to comply with the terms of the contract. Licensee was ordered to complete repairs within 60 days and to provide a financial statement.

All Star Tile., license number 44477 (General Building, Residential and Small Commercial), based out of Sparks, NV, was found in violation of Nevada Revised Statute 624 for substandard workmanship, failure to comply with a written request from the Board, failure to respond to a written request from the Board, failure to include monetary limit on a contract or proposal, bidding or contracting beyond the established license limit, and failure to establish financial responsibility. Licensee was ordered to pay $600 and complete repairs on the homeowner's residence and provide financial statement within 120 days, or license will be revoked.

The Business Review Program is one in which a contractor's business practices and regulatory compliance is examined by NSCB investigative staff. The program is a part of NSCB's proactive investigative efforts.

The Nevada State Contractors Board is committed to protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare through licensing and regulation of the construction industry. Under Nevada Revised Statutes, a licensee is subject to disciplinary action by the Board for failure to comply with the requirements of the laws or regulations governing contractors. Violations may result in Board action against the contractor's license. The State Contractors Board has the power to regulate contractors and discipline licensees who violate NRS 624. Disciplinary action may consist of a fine of up to $10,000 per offense, order corrective action, suspension, revocation or other action.
