NEVADA STATE CONTRACTORS BOARD REMEMBERS SERVICE OF FORMER MEMBER DENNIS JOHNSON FOLLOWING NEWS OF HIS PASSING

LAS VEGAS and RENO, NEV. – On October 10, 2025, former Nevada State Contractors Board member Dennis Kline Johnson passed away peacefully in the comfort of his home surrounded by family at the age of 83. Johnson served a total of 14 years on the Board following appointments by three separate governors and was elected chair twice during his tenure.

“Although Dennis served before my time at the Board, his contributions to the construction industry and commitment to fulfilling his responsibilities as a board member are still remembered by those who served and worked alongside him,” expressed NSCB Executive Officer David Behar. “We appreciate his contributions to the construction industry and know his legacy will be remembered for years to come.”

Johnson graduated from the University of Nevada, where he earned dual degrees in economics and real estate. Born and raised in Fernley, Nevada, Johnson spent his entire life contributing to the state’s growth as a builder and developer for nearly 60 years. He owned three contracting and development companies and built or developed more than 60 large-scale projects and housing divisions.

He was named a Life Director of the National Association of Home Builders in 1991 in recognition of his many years of service and later inducted into the Northern Nevada Home Builders Association Builder Hall of Fame in 2005.
